The Passing of Siskiyou Mac

By Just Bill, SASS# 16394

McGregor Lenoir Church, M. D. 1929-2004

McGregor was born to Walter E. Church and Bernice McGregor Church on August 29, 1929 in Portland Oregon. He graduated from Stanford in 1951 and from University of Oregon Medical School in 1956. He married Linda Brown in 1950 with whom he had 5 children. He married Diane McPhail in 1972. After Diane's death, he married Catharine Foyston in 1976. Catharine was the love of his life and brought him joy to the end of his days.

He retired as a Colonel from the USAF after serving since 1957 in active service and the Oregon Air National Guard. When he was stationed in Bitburg, Germany he and Catharine traveled extensively throughout Europe.

Mac was a man of keen intellect and deep compassion, a man who loved God and neighbor, a healer and lover of life. His interests were broad and deep. He loved to fly all types of aircraft, travel was a joy for him, and he was a sharpshooter (of both guns and photographs) and a connoisseur of fine wine. His faith was very deep. He was active in the Episcopal Church where he served as an Eucharistic Minister, Stewardship Chair, a member of the vestry, Campus Ministry, and on diocesan boards. He was a member of Kiwanis and The American Legion. Mac was the patriarch of a large and extended family of 12 children and stepchildren.

Mac died, surrounded by his loving family, on July 25th at Providence Medical Center in Medford.

He is survived by his beloved wife Catharine, his children McGregor (Sarva-drk das), Susan, Catherine, Robin, Charles, John, Christopher, Lise, Alex, Kathy, Jamie, and Meaghan and their spouses; 18 grandchildren and 4 great-grandchildren.

A memorial service in thanksgiving for the life of Dr. McGregor L. Church was held on Thursday July 29, 2004 at 5:00 p.m. at Trinity Episcopal Church in Ashland. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Trinity Episcopal Church Outreach Fund.

SASS #47309

The annual shoot is finally here and JSR is ready to host another awesome event. There are currently 82 shooters registered for this weekend full of fun. There are still spots available so get your registration and fees in to guarantee your spot on a posse. There will also be a few more opportunities to help with the final prep on the dates listed:

August 18th, 5pm at Ashland Muffler to finish trophies and targets; and August 26, 3pm at the Ashland Gun Club to help set up the parking arrangements; August 27 at the Ashland Gun Club to set up for the Match.

After the monthly shoot August 21st at 2pm the Boy Scouts will be visiting the range to see what type of activities are available at the gun club. They will be checking out the archers and would like to get a demo of Cowboy Action Shooting and possibly try shooting at a few targets. If you are interested in showing the leaders and young men of this organization about CAS please feel free to stick around.

If you are interested in joining the Ashland Gun Club, it is a great time since they are reorganizing their membership year so this years members will have membership from July '04 to December '05. Visit their website at www.ashlandgunclub.com for a membership app or contact Just Bill.

Hope to see you at the annual shoot and happy shooting!
