Wrapping Up 2003-Hello 2004!

By Harley Davidson,
SASS #47309

2003 went out with celebration and 2004 hit the ground running. The JSR Cowboy Christmas Celebration was attended by thirty-eight members, family, and friends. There was plenty of terrific food, lots of fun, and laughs. The steal-a-gift game was slow starting, but after Jed I. Knight stole the John Wayne DVDs from Grandma Morris, all hesitation and politeness went out the window. There were quite a few goods items that reached their maximum steals. And the game ended with Shootin' Silver Star rectifying a "wrong" by stealing back a Leatherman that Lucky

Rick O'Shay stole from Dawson. Ah, the love of a mother! Just Bill ended up with a purse when all was said and done and he was even caught posing with it. Bear Bone Smith won the two tickets to the Shady Lady Dinner and Dance and his wife, Kate Cassidy won the $25 gift certificate to Gussied Up in the door prize drawing. Thank you to Ruby May Wilkes for the door prize donations! The party lasted late into the evening, but it was so much fun, you hardly noticed. It is definitely an event that we'll look forward to next year.

Then the Shady Lady Dinner and Dance just added to the fun. It was great to be part of a much bigger group celebrating the history of Southern Oregon. Be sure to check out Jed's article that recaps the evening.

Now it's time to prepare for the Shootout at Lithia Springs 2004. The last business meeting announced that planning will begin at the February meeting. If you are interested in being part of the development and coordination come out to the meeting! So, here's to 2004 and the excitement it will bring!

KNIGHT VISION—SHADY LADY NIGHT

By Jed I. Knight,
SASS #36423

"A picture is worth a thousand words"...and if my camera had worked correctly on the evening of December 27, 2003 I would be able to show you several pictures that would sum up the fun we had that evening.

Several Jefferson State Regulators attended the Shady Lady Night in Jacksonville, Oregon. Shady Lady Night is a dinner/dance/evening of entertainment sponsored by SASS Member and the proprietor of Gussied Up, Ruby May Wilkes. Ruby May coordinated the event to bring together club members not just from JSR but also from The Red Hat Society, Petticoats and Pistols, Jacksonville Historical Society and the Shady Ladies. The event was designed to bring together those of us who share a common interest in history, especially as it relates to Southern Oregon.

The second annual Shady Lady Night was a success. There were fine eats served by the Jacksonville Inn. The dance floor was continually packed by fine looking folks, in their best 1800's attire, dancing to the live band. Some of the JSR members spotted on the dance floor included Katchmac Kate, M.T. Dawson, Gaye Abandon, Sweetwater Jack, Line Century, Queen O'Clubs, Shootin' Silver Star, Oregon Outrider (continued on Page 4)

Barbarosa Mike, Cinona Hawk, Rebel Belle, J.D. Walker, Bear Bones Smith, Kate Cassidy, Harley Davidson and myself. While SS Star and J.D. Walker did a fine job of cutting a rug, none quite burned up the dance floor like Barbarosa Mike.

JD Walker was given the microphone and an opportunity to speak about JSR and SASS. He informed the very attentive crowd about some of the details and history of SASS and briefly explained what we do out at the Ashland Gun Club. He also made it quite clear what separated us from the re-enactors, "we've got live ammo in our guns, boys!"

The evening's events culminated in two contests: a couple's event, "Best Gold Rush Couple" and the ever-popular vote for "Shadiest Lady". The award for Best Gold Rush Couple went to MT Dawson and Kachemak Kate (KK was dressed in a fine evening gown put together with help from Shootin' Silver Star). The award for Shadiest Lady, a hotly contested one, went to Linda Beachamp.

All those in attendance had a grand time – and I certainly hope that I didn't leave out the names of any club members who were there. I look forward to next year's event and seeing more of our members there. Perhaps next time when I grab my camera to play the role of Jimmy Olsen the pictures will turn out better.
